The Last Green Valley

Do you know about the Last Green Valley? You're in it! It was designated a National Heritage Corridor in 1994. Its web site (www.thelastgreenvalley.org) states:

The Last Green Valley is not a traditional park. Instead, citizens, businesses, nonprofit cultural and environmental organizations, local and state governments, and the National Park Service work together to preserve and celebrate the region's cultural, historical and natural heritage.

Maggie Breen, the North East Regional Missionary invites everyone to attend a gathering on Thursday, February 28 at Christ Church, Norwich at 6:30PM to learn about The Last Green Valley. Maggie, along with Rev. Rachel Thomas, SE Region Missionary, are hosting this meeting to facilitate conversation between LGV and anyone who is interested in eco-justice, conservation, nature, etc. Please do come!

Rev. Brian on Vacation

Rev. Brian will be on vacation from February 14, returning to the office on February 25. Please notify the Warden for any pastoral emergencies. More updates to come after next week's Vestry meeting.
