Quickbooks 2016

The office is looking for anyone who would have a 2016 QB license or disk we could use/load on the office computer. Let the office know if you may be able to help!

Survey Monkey

An email was sent out to the congregation this week from Survey Monkey. We appreciate you taking the time to take that Survey. If you have not seen the email and would prefer to take the survey in writing, surveys will be available after worship.

Invitation to Try Something New

Rev. Brian is going away in August and it might be a good alternative to do morning prayer. Based on the congregation's recent feedback, an alternative prayer service would be happily welcomed. If this is something that interests you please let Brian or a member of the vestry know.
